joint session of the City Council.

The candidates for the Legislature have been doing some "tall husting," and last night Candidate Rives sent out a large number of circulars to the voters, urging them to go to the polls and vote for him, so that his majority in his native city would be large enough to more than meet whatever vote comes down from the county for his opponent, Mr. Carter Harrison.

Harrison.

Mr. Harrison has done some good work here, and he has some good political workers, but indications pointed to the fact last night that Rives would poli nine-tenths of the vote cast in Manchester.

The fight between Mesars, Sadler and Robertson for the Senate is going to be close in this city, with chances either way.

Chairman French, of the City Committee, said last night that he did not think the vote to-day would be more than one-third of the registration, about 400. The voters are taking very little interest in the election, although the candidates and their workers are trying to get them crushed and mangled. He was carried to the Marsh-Highsmith Hospital, and it may be necessary to amputate one foot.

The school census of Fayetteville has fust been completed, showing 1,111 white children between the ages of six and twenty-one years, and 1,215 colored, a gain of 410 over 1902. This total of 2,330 children, is only one-fourth of the whole population, so that, in the same proportion tha gain of 410 children is only onefourth of the total gain-which would

Nothing is more annoying to men and women of middle age than to see those unmistakable signs of age-thin hair and grayness—approaching. But science has discovered that these conditions are no longer "unmistakable" evidences of idd age, for the dendruff germ theory proves that even very young people may suffer hair loss, while those fortunate enough to escape the ravages of the scalp germ retain their abundant locks to a ripe old ege. The most interesting fight that is to come to a head to-day is that for the position of city attorney before the City Council at 8:15 o'clock to-night. Friends of Mr. Charles Page and Mr. D. L. Pulor ar. Charles Page and Mr. D. L. Pulliam have been working hard for some days. Mr. Page said last night that he felt confident, while those who are opposing his election say that they will spring a surprise to-night.

It has been said that a "dark horse" would be put in nomination, and that it was anything to defeat Mr. Page. His triends, however, do not anticipate such a result.

Those who voted for Mr. Page wach his name was mentioned in opposition to Judge Clopton several waeks ago were: Messrs. Reams, Nunnally, Rudd, Hooker, Tillery, Sampson, Pettit, Ferguson and Huband. These members are counted on to be consistent to-night, and it was said ast night that at least three of those who opposed Mr. Page as against Judge Clopton will vote for him as against any and later on the Richmond Traction Company, and the Passanger and Power Company had fought together to get the best tax terms possible. At that time it was proposed to consolidate the three companies, but later one of their men had gone over with the Williams people, and his people would not stand by the action of the envering, so the two companies separated and the fight opened up for everything in sight.

Witness lad been promised soveral hundred thousand dollars' worth of bonds for himself and the Virginia Conduit Company, but he layer got what was promised. When the franchise had been granted there was some disarrangement of plans, and witness got only $50,000 of bonds. Not a dollar of this money had been spent upon members of the Council. In answer to a question witness said he never used any corrupt means to buy votes of Councilmen, but he would patronize Councilmen, but he would patronize Councilmen with his work and custom, and never argued with them over the price, though he had found them a pretty henest sets of fellows.

"I never saw a Councilman whose you I could buy," said the witness, "no one whom I could approach on such a subject."

Witness had employed others to help him in his fights before the Council.

He could not recall their names, though there had been suite a number of then, "Angelle had nonceased." They Are Still Selling Steadily, and the Prospects Are Bright.
